AAS To Present Honorary Colonel

NEBRASKA STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

APR 24 1956

The work and planning of Omaha University's Arnold Air Society will be climaxed tonight with the presentation of the fifth annual AF-ROTC Ball.

The event is scheduled from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m. at Peony Park. Hal McIntyre and his orchestra will provide the music.

The presentation of the Honorary Colonel and the grand march of the cadet officers and their ladies will highlight intermission ceremonies. Performances will be given by the Sabres, drill team, the Angelines, singing group, and the Angelettes, dancing angles.

The identity of the Honorary Colonel will be kept a secret until the grand march. Candidates for Honorary Colonel are Judy Rogers, Betty Ellsworth and Gayle Anderson. Two Lieutenant Colonels and three Majors will also be named from the above and additional candidates Irene Rorick, Pat Vogel and JoAnn White.

Gayle Anderson, a candidate for the top honor, has been a member of Angels for three years. This year she was flight commander of the organization. A senior home economics major, Miss Anderson has been a three-year member of marching Angels and an Angelette for two years. She is affiliated with Alpha Xi Delta sorority.

A senior home economics-journalism major, Betty Ellsworth has been an Angel three years. She is a three-year member of Marching Angels and was an Angelette for one year. Miss Ellsworth, Chi Omega, served as publications officer of Angels.

Judy Rogers, a senior speech major, is a three-year member of Angels. This year she has held the office of Operations Officer in the auxiliary organization. Miss Rogers has been a Marching Angel for two years, and in Angelettes one year. She is affiliated with Alpha Xi Delta sorority.

Acts from the intermission ceremonies were scheduled to be televised Monday, but were canceled because of a nation-wide telecast by President Eisenhower.

As in the past, the ball will be opened to the general public. Tickets will be $3.50 per couple.

Students, Faculty To Inspect Tentative Plans for Union

Students and faculty will get a second chance to voice criticisms on plans for the proposed Student Center. Tentative recommendations by the Student Center Planning Committee will be available for study in the Alumni office, Room 151; Mrs. Thelma Engle's office, Room 238, and Dean Jay B. MacGregor's office, Room 272, April 23 through May 1.

These recommendations are not final, they are merely suggestions subject to approval by President Milo Ball and the University Board of Regents.

Copies of the recommendations will be distributed to organization presidents, in the hope that they will be discussed in meetings and written criticisms will be submitted. Criticisms should be given to J. E. Erickson in the Alumni office, Mrs. Engle, Mr. Lewis or Dean MacGregor.

Upon written request, the committee will hear verbal criticism from individuals or representatives of organizations.

No students and only three faculty members took advantage of a previous opportunity to review the plans. The committee felt that this response showed a complete lack of interest.

The GATEWAY hopes students will utilize this chance to take part in the expansion of our University. The GATEWAY also urges student response through letters to the editor.

Notices

Students planning to teach under the secondary education program during the fall semester of 1956 should pick up their applications from Dean Frank Gorman's office as soon as possible.

Business Administration majors who want to take the proficiency test in typing at 3 p. m. Tuesday in Room 277 should see Miss Leta Holly as soon as possible.

The two-dollar fee is payable in the Business Office, and the receipt must be shown at the time of the test. Students whose schedules conflict with Tuesday's time should see Miss Holly for arrangements.

Students who will attain junior standing by the end of this semester are reminded to see their counselors before registration begins in May. The purpose of these conferences is the assignment of upper-classmen to a major adviser.

Honors Convo Set for Friday

The annual Honors Day Convocation will be at 11 a. m. next Friday in the Auditorium.

Winners of the Philip Sher Essay Contest and the Pi Gamma Mu Award will be announced. The convocation will recognize honor roll students and scholarship holders. Awards will be given for special ability and outstanding scholastic achievement.

Students who have maintained a 3.3 average during the second semester of 1954-55, the summer of '55, and the first semester of 1955-56 will be honored. University awards will be made to students with a 3.5 average or better.

An academic procession will form on the second floor and march to reserved seats in the Auditorium.

University President Milo Ball will preside over the ceremonies. The Rev. John W. Cyrus of the First Unitarian Church will talk on "The Rights of Intelligence."

Classes will be dismissed for the convo.

Dance Group To Present April Concert

"A Time to Dance" is drawing near.

Orchesis members are winding up rehearsals for their Apr. 28 concert in the auditorium.

The cast for the concert will include all members of the Omaha University modern dance group.

The concert, originally scheduled for a performance in the Adult Education Conference Center Auditorium, was changed to the main building Auditorium in order that choreographers would have more technical facilities at their disposal.

"Beethoven to Stravinsky"

"This year we have variety in music from Beethoven to Stravinsky," reports Miss Marilyn Nass, Orchesis sponsor.

The concert will also have variety in mood. Dance selections range from serious numbers such as the final "Lord's Prayer," to comical numbers like "Whale of a Tail," with Nancy Barnum, Bobbie Kucera and Jenne Vogt.

Three-Part Program

The modern dance group will be interpreting aspects of a newspaper, the sea and religion in their three-part program.

"We've spent many hours working on the concert, even during spring vacation," commented Gayle Chapman, one of the dancers. "But I think we all agree that it's been worth it. I hope that our work will be culminated by a successful concert."

Concert Free

Following the concert, the annual Orchesis award will be presented on the stage. The award is for the "Outstanding Member of Orchesis," and the winner's name will be engraved on the gold plaque which hangs in the P. E. hit. Judy Bondurant and Marilyn Brandes were last year's winners.

The concert, which begins at 8 p. m., is free to everyone.

ROTC Announces Cadet Promotions

AF-ROTC announced eight cadet promotions this week.

Assuming the rank and duties of Cadet Captain are William Graddy and Niel Shooter. Robert Holsten received the rank of First Lieutenant.

Promoted to Staff Sergeant are Wayne Gosh and Jerry Larson. New Airman First Class are Eric Dahlbeck and Gary Gamble and Erin Pollat received the rank of A2C.

All-School Election Nets Over 800 Votes

Educator Fogarty To Give Address For Convocation

Dr. Michael P. Fogarty, British author, editor and teacher, will address a student convocation at 11 a. m. Wednesday in the Auditorium.

A representative of the American Committee on United Europe, Dr. Fogarty will speak on "Economic Unity and Integration of Western Europe."

Dr. Fogarty is Visiting Professor of economics at the University of Notre Dame. He will return next fall to his post as Professor of Industrial Relations at the University of Wales.

Dr. Fogarty served from 1951 to 1955 as Chairman of the British National Committee of the European Youth Campaign.

"The Cultural Unity of Western Europe" will be the subject of Dr. Fogarty's address at a public lecture which will be Tuesday evening in the Adult Education Conference Center. A reception will follow at 9:45 p. m. in the Conference Center Lounge.

Get Tickets Today

The ticket booth for the Military Ball will remain open until 2 p. m. today. This will be students' last chance to get tickets for tonight's dance.

Goffin Receives OK On Citizenship Papers

Cadet Goffin . . . new citizen.

A University of Omaha student was granted special permission to receive his citizenship papers that he might enter the Air Force as a commissioned officer.

Keith Goffin has been enrolled in the Cadet Wing of the AF-ROTC as a non-contract student. He was unable to attend summer camp, necessary before any student may receive his commission, because he was not a United States citizen.

Citizenship papers are awarded normally only to groups, however, the next group scheduled would not be until after the 1956 summer camp.

Special permission was granted him so that he could attend the camp and receive his commission in August to enter the U. S. Air Force.

Goffin, cadet captain, and member of the Arnold Air Society, came to the United States from England in 1948.

OU Senior Student Seeks State Senate

By Jeanne Barton

"I want to be a state senator." That's the reason why Owen A. Giles, senior real estate major, is adding another activity to his already full class and working schedule.

Will Make Effort

Giles is a candidate for the state legislature from the ninth district in Omaha. He said, "I'm interested in state government. Due to the fact that few people can afford the time and financial sacrifice to run, I think that those who can should make the effort."

This is the first time Giles has ever sought any public office. Besides going to school, he is a full-time real estate broker associated with the Tegtmeler Realty Company.

Six Reasons

Giles listed six points that he would strive for if he were elected to office. He will support all sound school legislation. He said, "I am unalterably opposed to any sale of school lands." He objects to any form of sales or state income tax. He commented, "I think that there should be greater equalization of property assessments."

More Than Figurehead

Giles thinks that the governor of a state should be more than a figurehead. He would work to "re-vest executive authority and responsibility in the governor's office."

Specifically, he would be for "abolishment of the State Board of Control." Rather he would like to see the creation of office such as a penal director, a mental health director and a director of public welfare.

Do You Know Your Rights?

Kansas City, Mo. (AP)—Would you recognize the Bill of Rights if it was shown to you in an "anonymous" form?

A survey of 560 Northwestern University students disclosed that 92 1/2 percent of them could not.

Dr. Raymond W. Mack, Northwestern assistant professor of sociology, reported and said they believe in the Bill of Rights.

But when the first 10 amendments to the Constitution were presented to them as an unidentified document, most of them did not know what they were looking at.

What would happen if such a survey were taken on the University of Omaha campus? Would OU do better or worse than Northwestern's 92 percent?

Mrs. Fred Dawson called upon a student in one of her Psychology 112 discussion groups to recite on an outside reading assignment.

The unprepared young man voiced a quick "I'll pass."

A razor-witted classmate from the rear of the room echoed, "Not that way, you won't."

Future Senator?

According to Giles, the best situation would be to have these offices appointed by the Governor and directly responsible to him.

Graduate of South High

Giles would also advocate the transfer of control of the School for the Blind and the School for the Deaf to the State Board of Education.

After graduating from South High in 1943, the 30-year-old senior went into the Marine corps. He served three years in World War II.

He is married to an Omaha University graduate, Lorraine Swanson Giles. They have no children. Mrs. Giles is the principal of Belvedere School in Omaha.

President of Rho Epsilon

At the University, Giles is president of the newly organized chapter of Rho Epsilon, National Real Estate Fraternity.

Last spring he received a real estate finance scholarship from the Omaha Mortgage Bankers Association for his work in a real estate class in the spring of '55.

Profs Emery, Hill, Utley Attend City Charter Workshop

Three members of the Omaha University faculty took part in the City Charter workshop Tuesday at the University.

They include William T. Utley, chairman of the University's Department of History and Government; Donald Emery, dean of the College of Adult Education; and Duane Hill of the Department of History and Government.

University Sponsors

The all-day workshop was sponsored by the University, the Chamber of Commerce and the American Federation of Labor.

Thirty candidates are still in the running. The 15 elected will start work immediately because they are limited by law to a four-month session.

Utley Co-ordinator

Mr. Utley has been asked by the temporary candidates organization to act as convention co-ordinator. City Attorney Edward F. Fogarty will act as legal counsel for the convention.

He discussed legal ramifications of charter revision at Tuesday's workshop.

George R. Sidwell, Lansing, Mich., consultant to city charter commissions, told the candidates how other cities have handled the problem.

Open for Candidates Only

Sidwell spoke at a public meeting Tuesday night at the conference center auditorium.

The committee on arrangements includes Gordon Preble, candidate and president of the Nebraska Federation of Labor; O. W. Roberts, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and Utley and Emery.

The workshop was open for candidates only.

Air Science Professor To Head Inspection

Colonel Walter K. Shayler, Professor of Air Science, will head an inspection team on a six-week tour beginning Apr. 18.

The team will inspect AF-ROTC wings in universities and colleges in the northwestern states.

Flowers, Lawns Subject of OU Clinic

The University of Omaha College of Adult Education will sponsor the annual flower and lawn clinic Apr. 23 from 1 p. m. to 10 p. m. at the Conference Center in the Gene Eppley Library.

Francis L. Simonds, Jr., Omaha florist, will speak at the afternoon session on "Floral Arrangements—Modern."

Other afternoon speakers: Mrs.

Carl Wulkau of Ralston, "Floral Arrangements—Religious and Holiday;" Charles Ederer, Omaha florist, "Gardening Inside." A display of miniature arrangements will be offered by Mrs. C. E. Huffman of Omaha.

The evening session, beginning at 7:30 will feature a talk on residential landscaping.

Emery Demonstrates Ability at Leadership

By Janet Larson

It is often surprising to Omahans to learn that the OU College of Adult Education has "For years, enrolled more students than all of the four day colleges put together."

This fact is brought out with a note of pride by the educator who has directed that college for the past three years, Dr. Donald G. Emery.

Large Enrollment

"Our enrollment is 1,000 students greater per semester than it was five years ago," added Dr. Emery, "and we are in the top one-third of the 104 evening college divisions in the country."

Under Dr. Emery's direction, the College has scored a midwestern "first" with its educational television series now in its fifth consecutive year.

The College has also developed at Offutt Air Force Base the second largest off-duty Air Force educational program in the nation.

Dean in 1953

Such accomplishments testify to competent leadership.

Dr. Emery came to OU in 1951 as assistant to the president and associate dean of the school of Adult Education. The school gained college status in 1952 and Dr. Emery became Dean in 1953. In addition, he is Dean of the Summer Sessions and associate professor of education.

Community Service

Dr. Emery's interest centers upon the adult education conference center and the services it offers. "I am presently engaged in discussing with many individuals and groups in the community how the adult college can best be of service to them and to the community," he stated.

Dr. Emery's professional activities also include writing for educational publications and addressing many professional and community groups on local, state and regional levels.

Dean Emery . . .

Holds Many Offices

His work has earned for him the offices of chairman of the Television Committee of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, secretary-treasurer of the Missouri Valley Adult Education Association, (1951-1954), vice-president of the Nebraska Association of Colleges and Universities and membership on the Executive Board of the Association of University Evening Colleges.

Free Time at Premium

Such professional commitments in addition to community service positions combine to make free time at a premium for Dr. Emery. "Planting pin oaks" and caring for the lawn have become his main hobby since the completion of his new home on South 68th Street, forcing his other hobbies, reading, bowling and golf into the background.

"Really, my best recreation is short trips or week-ends away with my family,"—Mrs. Emery, eight-year-old Mark and six-year-old Martha,—smiled the busy Dean.

Graduates To Give New Typewriters

Members of the Senior class decided on the class gift to the school at their Wednesday noon meeting.

A typewriter fund for the purchase of new typewriters for free student use in the library will be established by funds from the class of '56, as their gift.

Dave Raymond, Senior Day chairman, read the financial report for the day, and announced that Lew Radcliffe will plant the tree.

Bill Graddy, banquet-dance chairman, reported that over 150 seniors have signed up and paid for the banquet.

Chuck French, Senior president, announced that seniors will be billed this week $10 for cap, gown and diploma fees.

Members of the graduating class should go to the bookstore immediately to be measured for their caps and gowns if they want them in time for Baccalaureate ceremonies.

Graduation announcements will be available in the bookstore on May 1.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

by Dick Bibler

Why Won't Spring Ever Come?

Spring actually became official on March 21. And yet, as the cold north wind whips across a cold OU campus it feels like January in June. (So to speak.)

Still Shivering

Way back four or five issues in the GATEWAY there was a feature called "And Suddenly It's Spring." The overly optimistic editor who composed that bit of fluff is now shivering in her winter coat as the time for air-conditioners and sun baths still seems far, far away.

The main trouble is, of course, the familiar unpredictable Nebraska weather. Like a woman who can't make up her mind it fluctuates from very warm to very cold to very warm again. From snow to rain to sunshine.

Timid Flowers

A few timid flowers have appeared in the midst of snow flurries and predicted cold fronts. And the birds too seem hopeful of warmer weather.

Spring sports have begun on campus for even though the weather doesn't always coincide with the calendar the boys in track and baseball and fellows and girls in tennis seem to enjoy themselves. What fun! Tennis and 30 degree weather doesn't add up to a very good match in this writer's opinion.

No Justification

Students have been long caught with the disease of SPRING fever but there is no SPRING. And the sooner there is some justification for this writer's feelings of utter laziness and restlessness the sooner her over-active conscience will stop bothering her.

No bit of arithmetic can make snow flurries and sunshine add up to SPRING.

Simple Arithmetic

Add some warm southern zephyrs, subtract the northern gales. Sprinkle a bit of sunshine and greenness over the campus and SPRING will be here!

So, please, Mr. Weatherman, study your charts and maps with care and draw up some nice SPRING breezes and warm weather predictions for the OU students like this editor who does not want to wait until January for June-like weather.

Maybe with your help the weather can make up its mind and become SPRING.

Independent Students' Association Crowns JoAnne McClellan Sweetheart

JoAnne McClellan was crowned Sweetheart of the Independent Students' Association Friday night. The crowning ceremonies took place during the intermission of the organization's annual Starlight Stroll.

Miss McClellan is a sophomore Education major.

Duane Hess and his band played at the informal all-school dance from 9 to midnight at the Elks Club Ballroom.

Other candidates for the title were Donna Camero, Myrna Giles, and Charlotte Stanley.

No Clock Needed

"A chemistry professor at a Texas college needs no clock by which to time his lectures. He merely watches eye balls. At a quarter after, there are only a few; at a quarter to, there is a solid line of white eyeballs with little dots at the top watching the clock. The professor explains it this way; 'The more white eyeballs, the nearer it is to bell time.'"

It seems that some profs should also be able to tell time by the level of the students' eyelids. The lower the lids, the closer to the end of the hour. But, of course, the fellow who falls asleep during the first five minutes of the hour would foul up that system."

Phi Beta Chi Ceremony Set For Saturday

Tomorrow marks the installation of Phi Beta Chi, local University social fraternity, as Epsilon Epsilon chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon.

The installation, at the Fontenelle Hotel, climaxes a year of affiliation with TKE in which Phi Beta Chi has prepared for becoming a national chapter.

Hal Anway and J. R. Salisbury, national officers will preside at the ceremonies. Members of the installation team will come from the University of Nebraska chapter.

Tom Philpott will be installed as president. Other officers include Don Erlich, vice-president; Buzz Townsend, secretary; Herb Greis, treasurer, and Gary Stephenson, chaplain.

Others are Lou Sobzyk, historian; Walt Erhorn, social chairman, and Norm Olsen, pledge trainer.

Thirty-three members will also be installed.

The Epsilon Epsilon chapter will join 130 active chapters and affiliates of Tau Kappa Epsilon.

The new chapter will celebrate with a banquet Sunday at the hotel.

Kay Talty was elected president of the Nebraska State Future Teachers of America Association Saturday.

The election was on the order of business at the association's annual business meeting which was held at OU.

Miss Talty, a junior Education English major, is treasurer of Chi Omega. She is president of the FTA and past secretary of the Nebraska FTA.

France may have its Gardemes, England its Royal Guards, but OU has its Sabres—who did a wonderful job at Des Moines last weekend. They took top honors at the meet with Drake and Iowa State.

The Crack Drill team will again be highlighted tonight along with the Angelettes and Arnold Air Society at the Military Ball.

A lot of hard work and practice has gone into the Military Ball preparations, which is an excellent example of our school spirit. Show your school spirit tonight and attend the Ball, 9 p. m. at Peony Park. See ya there!

Make it an all terrific weekend by attending the Ball tonight and attending the Style Show at the Brandeis Junior Colony tomorrow. The show will feature apparel ranging from rain 'n shine coats to the latest in lounging clothes.

OU students who will model include: Dorothy Carroll, Gayle Chapman, Shirley Dahl, Joan Erickson, Nancy Fitt, Sue Forrey, Gloria Hattam and Carole Kratky.

Others include: Nancy Martin, Lois Proffitt, Jo Snyder, Marilyn Stride, Jeanne Vogt and Marcia Wetzler.

These OU beauties will make the most of each costume, guaranteeing an interesting show.

Intramural Roundup

By Dick Paulson

The highly-touted Pawnees, a menace in intramural athletic circles, have slipped from their role as ringmaster in the multi-attraction 'mural circus'.

The Sigma Phi Epsilon lads now dominate in quest of the sweepstakes trophy. They have amassed 142 points.

But their chore is indeed a rugged row to hoe. This is the fourth consecutive season that the boys from Sig Ep have been called upon to defend their sweepstakes championship.

Sig Eps Have Winning Way

They established their winning trait in 1952, and have no intention of allowing this victorious tradition to be broken.

In close pursuit to Sig Ep's is Theta Chi with 135½ points. At a razor's edge away are the Pawnees with 133½, while Pi Kappa Alpha places fourth with 124 markers.

However, the Pawnees are far from being finished.

Inactivity is the only factor in their descent from first to third place. Had they entered the volleyball league, they would still be the kings of mural sports on the strength of added entry points alone.

Prizes Back on Top

In fact, they probably have already regained their lost prestige. The 22-week bowling league closed last week with the Pawnees finishing on top.

The dispersing of points for all participating teams was not available at this reporting. A revised standing of sweepstakes point-gathering will be published as soon as this information is revealed.

The present ratings, judged on the completion of flag football, cross country, soccer, wrestling, basketball, indoor track and volleyball events, are as follows:

SWEEPSTAKES POINTS

Sigma Phi Epsilon	142
Theta Chi	135½

Baker Tops Bowling

In addition to the Pawnees winning the 'Mural division bowling championship, the individual and team honors were decided.

Gordon Baker of PE Majors retained his individual leadership in both the series and single game classes.

His three-game output of 624 was not only good enough to win this season, but served as an all-time intramural record as well.

The 208-pin-average performance bested a record 620 series set during the 1952-53 season.

Oddly enough, the former mark was held by "Han" Hefflinger, Jr., then of ISA. Hefflinger and Baker have been buddies through city league competition since about the start of their bowling careers.

No New One Game Mark

Baker's 235 single fell shy of breaking Len Topolski's record 238 game. Topolski was an unaffiliated bowler in the 1950-51 campaign.

Mike Combs, ISA, had a fine single game effort of 231. A healthy 577 series was chipped in by league secretary Dana Tucker of Sigma Phi Epsilon. Both scores rated next-best honors.

Baker climaxed an awesome season by rock-and-rollin' his way to a 184-pin average finish. This distinction gave the jovial "Big Moose" a complete sweep of individual glory.

ISA Hits Series High

An early season mark of 1,960 proved more than enough as ISA pocketed the team series high.

Sig Ep's topped 726 pins for the best team single score, while ISA hung in close with a 714 count.

Neither of these marks were records. The Sioux's of 1953-54 carved a 1,985 series and a 785 singles total in team competition.

Sig Ep's replaced last year's Interfraternity division champions, Lambda Chi, by the narrow margin of one game.

A wild scramble in the five-team frat race resulted in a three-team tie for second place. Theta Chi missed causing a five-way jubilee by losing one game too many to Sig Eps.

Final standings for the 1955-56 season:

Ping Pong Poops Out

Campus interest is low when it comes to "pinging the pong."

Only seven men participated in singles-play in another disappointing table tennis tournament. Earlier efforts to conduct a clinic also failed.

The meager turn-out resulted in three sets of partner-competitors.

The gamers who were at least willing to try included Dana Tucker, singles champ, Dick Graham, who teamed with Tucker to win the doubles crown, Bill Petrik, Jim Graddy, Gary Carlson, "Dusty" Decker and Si Simon.

In the singles meet, Graham finished behind Tucker, while Decker and Petrik tied for the 3-4 spot.

Petrik and Graddy combined to place second in the doubles event, with Decker and Carlson finishing third.

Here is a reminder.

Softball will start Tuesday, Apr. 24 at 1:30 p. m. Consult the Field House bulletin boards for time and scheduling of all team games.

'Mural Chief Ernie Gorr has initiated golf to the athletic program.

All interested male golfers who enjoy teeing off must register their desire to do on Apr. 27 in Gorr's Field House office.

Meets, Matches Fill Future Dates

Baseball at 3 p. m. today opens an eight-day period of Omaha University spring sports with 15 events scheduled.

Virgil Yelkin's Indians meet South Dakota State College on the campus diamond this afternoon and Saturday. The team plays three road games on consecutive days next week.

Ernie Gorr will hustle his track squad off to two popular cinder attractions. The thinclads compete in the Kansas Relays in Lawrence and the Drake Relays in Des Moines, Ia.

Grinnell College visits Dewey Park for a tennis match with OU tomorrow.

Then golf and tennis teams make three road appearances. Marysville, Missouri and Topeka and Manhattan in Kansas are stop-off points on the three-day jaunt.

Eleven Marks Broken As Indians Edge Foes

Track and field men from Omaha University, Nebraska Wesleyan and Doane made shambles of the record book for the triangular meet Tuesday. Eleven records fell.

Dave Piller, Bob Barnes, Bill Barnes, Dick May, Lloyd Hunter, and Merrill Gee were the OU meet mark smashers.

Bill Barnes broke his own standards in hurdles races. In the

An outstanding individual effort came on the cold, windswept field. Dave Piller broke his broadjump mark with a graceful 22-foot 10½ inch leap, one foot one inch better than the record.

OU's Hunter also topped the mark, taking second, and Larry Means missed the old standard by a half inch while placing third.

Other Indians showed well in the field events. Hugh Allen and Dick May shared firsts with opponents in the high jump and pole vault. Dave Garrett suffered an ankle injury in the vaulting event.

Al Brown tossed the discus 133 feet 11½ inches to win the event. Bill Haffey aided with a fourth place effort.

The mile and two mile runs and the javelin throw were the only events in which Indian athletes did not place.

Topekans Win

Omaha University's string of track victories came to an abrupt halt at Topeka, Kansas April 17 as the Washburn Ishabods came out on the long end of a 69-62 score.

The Indians won seven of nine running events but failed to make a first in any field event.

Bill Barnes spearheaded the Indian attack by winning three running events.

His blistering :15.3 in the 120-yard high hurdles set a new mark. He also won the 220-yard dash and the 220 lows.

Brother Bob also got into the act by breaking the 440 mark with a :50.9 clocking.

Dependable Larry Means upped the Indian point total by winning the mile and 880.

The Indians failure to win any field events proved to be the deciding factor in the Washburn win.

However OU did record three second places—Dave Garrett in the pole vault, Al Brown in the discus, and Hugh Allen in the high jump.

The OU mile relay quartet also joined in the record smashing. Tom Davis, Jim Dempsey, Larry Means and Bob Barnes passed the baton in this event.

Bob Barnes . . . no record, but first place.

120-yard highs it was a dead heat with Barnes and Hunter splicing the string at the same instant.

Team scoring was close enough that the Indians needed a victory in the final event, the 880-yard relay. OU won the half mile race in record time, 1:34.1.

The win put Omaha's point total at 70 8/15, only 2 2/15 better than the number compiled by the Wesleyan thinclads. Doane finished third was 31 1/15.

Indian Insight

Counterfeit Chaw

A would-be Nellie Fox on the OU baseball squad lost some prestige recently.

Clem Bruning, West Point, Nebr., freshman, has been doing a good job for the Indians at shortstop, adding to the dignity of his position with a large chaw placed in his cheek.

With his bullfrog voice and what appeared to be a healthy slug of Red Man, Bruning was well on his way to earning an "Old Pro" or some equally respectable label. But the boys found him out.

Clem's chaw consists of ten chewy sticks of Blackjack gum.

John Stella was the losing pitcher in the first Omaha University diamond defeat.

But John's hurling performance was far from a failure. Not when the conditions are considered.

Stella tossed a nine-hitter, not bad for eleven innings. And the weather was bad enough to make playing debatable.

John stayed in there against the Nebraska Wesleyan batters, despite high winds and 30-degree temperatures.

With "ducks on the pond," Bob Trumbauer came to the plate against Doane last Saturday for his first collegiate batting attempt.

Before we go on, let's explain that the ensuing shambles were by no means the entire responsibility of Mr. Trumbauer. He actually smacked a wicked sinking drive to the mound, but—threw to third . . . runner tagged . . . throw to first . . . runner tripled off. A Doane triple play. Some Doane players in same contest playing with same baseball recorded ten (10) errors.

In brief, pitcher caught . . .

Loyal Fan Lost

The funeral of Loran Wheeler was respected by a large number of the men who have represented OU in athletics for the past two years.

Father of Bob Wheeler, Mr. Wheeler was an honored friend to scores of athletes and the coaching staff. His death was not only the loss of a fine man, but the loss of one of the finest supporters for Omaha University athletics.

Stadium Calls

Students who attended classes last Friday after 1 p. m. are either more studious or less baseballed than the GATEWAY sports editor.

The crowd-trimming the outfield area was the only blotch on a perfect baseball day. The overflow spoiled all chances for sensational catches in the outfield.

Being a rabid Omaha Cardinal fan, the heavy use of Card grads by Freddie Hutchinson was the game highlight.

Ray Uhlhorn Beats Indians With Eleventh Inning Run

Pillar jumps well vertically . . . even better horizontally.

The Nebraska Wesleyan Bobcats handed the Indian baseballers their first loss of the season last Monday 7-6 in an 11-inning thriller.

Bob Daniels' grand-slam homer in the sixth capped a five-run rally and was the difference between defeat and victory for Omaha. Omaha rebounded in the seventh inning after trailing 5-3 to push across three runs. Buddy Yambor's three-run homer in the first gave OU a temporary 3-0 lead.

The Lincolns tied the game at six-all in the bottom half of the ninth. Neither team was able to break the dead-lock in the tenth.

Then in the eleventh, with two out, Ray Uhlhorn drove in the winning run for the Bobcats.

Yambor and Daniels also hit triples for their respective teams. John Stella was the losing pitcher and Dick Evenson, the winner. Both pitchers went the distance.

Doane Errors Help

Omaha University's Indians combined 10 hits and 10 Doane errors for a 12-2 triumph over the Tigers here Saturday.

Although the Tigers committed 10 errors they came up with the fielding gem of the game. In the seventh inning Bob Trumbauer, OU substitute catcher hit a line drive at the Doane pitcher and he threw to third. The third baseman tagged the runner coming in and threw to first to complete the triple killing.

For three innings it looked like Doane would make a game of it. Trailing 1-0, Omaha's Dave Langevin started the onslaught with a triple.

From the fourth on, the Indians scored in practically every inning. Stan Schaetzle was the winning pitcher.

Yambor Hits Four

The Indian Baseball team made their initial road game a success as they squeezed by the Hastings Broncos, 10-8 in 10 innings.

Playing at Duncan Field in Hastings, Thursday, Apr. 12, OU held an 8-3 lead going into the bottom half of the eighth. But a five run outburst in the eighth made the score 8-8.

Hastings pitcher Gene Fisher led the home team in the hitting department with a single and a triple.

After a scoreless ninth OU pushed across two runs in the top half of the tenth and held the Broncos scoreless. Stan Schaetzle, who relieved John Stella in the eighth, was credited with the victory.

Omaha scored four runs in the fifth and duplicated that feat in the eighth. Second baseman Joe Yambor wielded the big stick for the Indians. He collected a triple and three singles in six trips to the plate.

Bluejays Nip OU Golf Men

Arch-rival Creighton University eked out a 9½-8½ win over the University of Omaha golfers last Monday.

Jerry Dugan had the low round for Creighton with a 79. Harry Curtis had a low round of 80 for Omaha.

"Dandy" Dan Simon, ace basketball player for the Bluejays, shot a birdie three on the eighteenth hole to clinch the victory for Creighton.

Kansans Triumph

The Omaha golfers were badly outclassed by the University of Kansas last Saturday at the Indian Hills course in Omaha.

Bob Richards of Kansas shot the best round of the day with a 71. Harry Curtis was the best the Indians had to offer. He shot a 77.

Final score showed Kansas on top, 10½-1½. Bob Richards defeated Harry Curtis in the number one match of the day.

Baseball Ace Picks Track

Dave Piller's name certainly needs no introduction to anyone who has taken a passing interest in the fate of the OU track team.

A transfer student to Omaha U last fall, Dave's participation in the cinder sport has proved a deciding factor in the success of Coach Ernie Gorr's talented trackers.

Primarily noted for his skill in the broad jump, agile Dave has also answered the call to run in the 100-yard dash and 880 relay.

Among other things, he can always be depended upon to make a good account of himself in the high jump.

Dave began his active sports career while in high school. His first two years in high were spent at Osaka, Japan. At this time, his athletic prowess began to show up in more tangible forms.

Dave spent his last two years at Folsom high in California where he was a four-sport monogram winner.

Upon graduation, Dave enrolled in Sacramento State Junior college. He was a member of the baseball team which won the title in the Pacific Coast College League.

At one time, Dave was offered a bid by St. Louis Cardinal Scout Joe Gordon to enter the tryouts at the St. Louis spring training camp. Despite other big league offers, he chose education.

While at Sacramento State, Dave set a record in the broad jump with a 22-foot leap. Last year, Dave won the N.A.I.A. district broad jump championship.

On April 17, in the meet against Nebraska Wesleyan and Doane at OU, Dave jumped 2 feet, 10½ inches, to smash a 15-year-old University record.

Mary Larsson New Women's PE Proxy

The Women's P. E. Majors and Minors Club had election of officers last week.

Mary Ann Larsson was elected president; Donna Bridgewater, vice-president; Ruth Glandt, secretary; Dale Peters, treasurer, and Manette Fokken, social chairman. The group is planning a party and overnight.

Ten Floats To Enter Ma-ie Day Parade

"This year's Ma-ie Day parade should be the biggest we've ever had" reports Don Pflasterer, assistant Dean of Student Personnel.

Float ideas were turned into the Dean of Students office last Friday. Ten organizations submitted first and second choice ideas. OU's nine social sororities and fraternities submitted their ideas along with Delta Sigma Pi, professional fraternity.

Dean Pflasterer commented: "There are some excellent ideas if they materialize. They all stuck pretty close to the 'Indian Holiday' theme."

The administration has obtained permission for 125 cars in the parade, which is 25 more than usual. Also, the parade route has been drawn up and approved by the police department.

The parade will consist of the 125 cars, the floats and the band. All cars must be registered and decorated before they may participate. Park Ames, sophomore student council member, is head of the parade committee.

Attira to Reign

Plans are still being drawn for the playday picnic and crowning of Princess Attira XXII.

Princess Attira, queen of the May festivities, was elected by an all-school vote Wednesday, but the winner will not be announced until Ma-ie Day.

Journalism Students To Receive Honors At Annual Banquet

Voting for the student who has contributed most to the University of Omaha through journalism will take place next Tuesday from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. in Room 251. Names of eligible voters are posted on the GATEWAY bulletin board.

Key awards for first, second and third year publications service will be determined by a committee composed of the first and second semester GATEWAY editors, the editor of the current Tomahawk, a full-time Journalism department staff member and the student publications advisor.

Awards Not Retroactive

Awards will begin with the 1955-53 University school year and are not retroactive. A student must be enrolled in student publications work during both or either one of the semesters of the school year to be considered for an award that year.

A special award, determined by Journalism department faculty, will be presented to students who have successfully completed seven semesters of publications work and are currently engaged in their eighth, or students who have successfully completed eight semesters of publications work.

Special Trophy to Alum

In addition to student awards, Journalism faculty will select an OU journalism alum to receive a trophy. Basis of the award shall be contribution to the field of mass communications during the year prior to the award.

Presentation of awards will be made at the May 3 annual recognition banquet at the Spare Time Cafe. Recipients of all awards will be announced the evening of the banquet.

Professor Given Medal for Efforts

Captain Bruce G. Keltz, professor of Air Science, was honored at a ceremonial parade Tuesday morning.

Captain Keltz was presented the Commendation Medal for outstanding efforts in inaugurating a flying training program for the United States Air Force in Europe. The presentation was made by Colonel Walter H. Shaylor.

The cadet wing, under the command of Cadet Wing Commander Richard Matthews, passed in review after the presentation ceremonies.

are Gayle Anderson; Alpha Xi Delta; Patty Sue DuVall, Sigma Kappa; Betty Ellsworth, Chi Omega; Pat Kaxan, Zeta Tau Alpha and Arlyss Welch, Independent Students' Association.

Eight Women Join Honorary

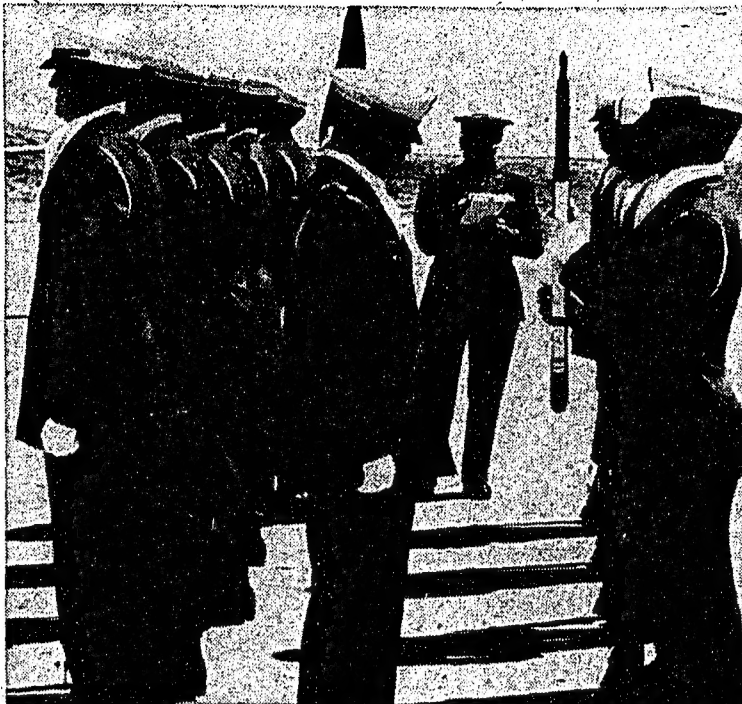

Eight girls were initiated into Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's honorary, Wednesday evening in the faculty clubroom.

New members are Carol Coffey, Ruby DuBois, Barbara Fleck, Virginia Frank, Sandra Goesh, Sue Henderson, Annette Kosowsky and Donna Vance. They each received their pin and a certificate.

Following initiation was a banquet honoring new members. Dean of Women, Mrs. Mary Padou Young, the group's sponsor, welcomed new members. Also, for entertainment, was a skit written by Sue Moss and a vocal selection by Bonnie Sorensen.

Membership to Alpha Lambda Delta is open only to women who attain a 3.5 average during the first semester of their freshman year.
